Expand your reach – get access to thousands of Fee-Only Financial Advisors

ABOUT NAPFA

NAPFA serves as the country's leading professional association of Fee-Only financial advisors. Since 1983, the association has represented and supported a growing community of highly trained practitioners.

More than 4,500 NAPFA members currently serve as a beacon for independent, objective financial advice for individuals and families. They strive to be the champion of financial services delivered in the public interest, and to be the standard bearer for the financial planning profession.

A diverse set of educational learning opportunities are available for NAPFA members to advance their dedication to Fee-Only financial planning. In addition, NAPFA offers several ways for members to connect with one another, including getting involved in volunteering, joining a Local Group, and attending a Conversation Circle. These compelling opportunities help NAPFA members not only learn from one another through peer-to-peer connection, but continue increasing the importance and value of Fee-Only financial planning.

NAPFA members are a known, well-respected, and dependable segment of the independent advisory landscape. They commonly tend to service clients with a high net worth.
